NINE-HOUR DAY
IN PORTLAND.

Employers Insist on the Open Shop in Oregon City.

They Point to the Prosperity
of Los Angeles.

Say Unionism Has Caused
San Francisco to Lag.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PORTLAND (Or.) March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Employers engaged in the building trades, backed by the Employers' Association, in a meeting held today, decided that the nine-hour day shall be enforced in all building operations during the summer months here.

The decree was issued after the failure of San Francisco union organizers to tie up work on the Multnomah Hotel, following the inauguration of the nine-hour day there.

"There is no serious development growing out of the carpenters' strike on the Multnomah Hotel work," said C. K. Henry, who is managing the interests of the R. R. Thompson estate here. "We believe it necessary to rush work during the summer months and it is being done. In California, where there is more open building weather, a shorter day may be observed to better advantage, but here the work season is more limited and sometimes it is necessary to work longer hours to get a job advanced to a safe point."

"This has got to be an open-shop town," continued Mr. Henry. "Los Angeles is open shop and has prospered. Portland has been open shop and has prospered. San Francisco has been closed and it is lagging."

Labor officials today said no active resistance to the new order was planned. They expressed the purpose of merely standing on guard and not opening any new lines of difficulty.

Headquarters of the Employers' Association has become a large employment bureau, where the employers of the city are apparently organized to furnish help to any member of the Employers' Association. A considerable number of men visit these headquarters daily and are assigned to work.

THIRPS SKIP THE CHERRIES.

Pears, Plums and Prunes Seem to Be the Favorite Meat of the Destructive Pest.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That conditions in the Delta lands are far more serious than at first expected in the report made today by E. E. Brenner, executive secretary of the State Board of Horticulture, after making an investigation as to the damage being done by thrips. Brenner declares that in some orchards the pear crop is ruined and that in the entire district around Courtland and on Grand Island not more than half a crop of pears can be expected.

Besides pears, the thrips have made damaging inroads on plums and prunes but, strange as it may seem, cherries are comparatively untouched by the destructive insect.

This is the worst damage ever reported in this section from thrips and from the investigation just made, and which will be confirmed by the State commission, the thrips are spreading throughout the fruit districts, taking a wider range and coming up the river rapidly.

Examination of the cherry trees disclosed that thrips do not thrive on them except in very rare cases, but the pear orchards have been practically swept clear. All varieties of the fruit have suffered, the Bartlett's suffering the worst.

IDENTIFIED BY A CONSTABLE.

Rocklin Says Prisoner Is One of the Men Who Bound Their Pursuers to a Tree and Escaped.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
AUBURN (Cal.) March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Lester Matthews, who was caught in Sacramento and brought to the Placer County Jail by Sheriff McAuley, is charged with being one of the men who committed burglary at Knight's Landing, Rocklin, and Lincoln, engaged in a pistol fight with officers in Orland, Glenn county, and who broke jail in Visalia. Matthews has been identified by Constable Clough of Rocklin, as one of the men who attempted to rob a store in that town last week and later overpowered and bound to a tree the officers who endeavored to capture them.

Fumes with blood hounds searched several days for Matthews and his confederates. They planned to turn a trick in Placer Monday night, but were frustrated.

INSANE RANCHER TAKEN.

But Not Until the Washington Man Had Killed Three of His Neighbors and Wounded Himself.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
EVERETT (Wash.) March 31.—Otis N. Weeden, the Bank River ranchman who became insane yesterday and shot and killed three of his neighbors, William Hinkler, John Hinkler and John Smyre, died last night. He had shot himself in his cabin when it was surrounded by a posse, and as he lay wounded, rifle in hand and apparently prepared to fight again, Deputy Sheriff Donovan, of Skagit county, fired on him, rendering further resistance impossible.

With only one of Weeden's victims had been quartered at any time before the murders. Meeting the wife and son of the dead man, he told her he had just killed a widow.

There was a witness to the murder of Mrs. Smyre and Weeden forced the body of the victim to help him to escape. The body was found in the woods, and the man was taken to the hospital.

STATE PRINTERY A FIRE TRAP.

Sacramento Officials Condemn Old Governor's Mansion, Now Used As Printing Office, As Menace to Life.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That the State Printing Office is the worst fire trap in the city, the statement of the Sacramento fire marshal, who is making a study of the building, is making has already condemned and ordered torn down about a score of ancient structures.

During the sessions of the Legislature several hundred persons—men and women—are employed in the building, and the only means of exit in case of fire is a rickety wooden stairway. Chief Anderson has given verbal notice that two metal fire escapes must be installed. The chief sees no difference between a State building and one erected by an individual, so long as the law is not being observed.

There is probably more danger to life in the State Printing Office than any other structure in Sacramento," said the chief today. "Men and women are working on the top floors, surrounded by piles of inflammable material. It is just when the most women and men are employed in the building that the greatest danger exists from fire."

"A fire breaking out in the plant when a full force of workmen and working women is on duty would undoubtedly result in appalling loss of life."

PRINTING HEALTH-BULLETS.

The First of the Series Designed for School Children Will Deal With Alcohol and Narcotics.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The secretary of the Board of Health and the superintendent of Public Instruction will shortly begin to issue a series of bulletins dealing with the conservation of health. The bulletins will be distributed among the children of the public schools. This will be in line with a plan of education advocated by the Women's Christian Temperance Union, which, through its president, Mrs. Sarah W. Dorr of San Jose, and its secretary, Miss Chase of San Francisco, succeeded in obtaining an appropriation of $4000 from the Legislature for the work.

The amount is carried in the general State appropriation bill. It is provided that the entire $4000 shall be expended for printing, leaving nothing for postage to mail the bulletins. On this account the W.C.T.U. will shortly undertake to raise funds to have a number of the bulletins placed in the hands of each of the school superintendents of the State, who will be expected to attend to the distribution among the children.

The first bulletin will deal with the evil effects of alcohol and narcotics.

"TOO MUCH PREACHER."

That's the Reason a Missouri Citizen, Formerly of San Jose, Wants a Divorce in Reno.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
RENO (Nev.) March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Albert J. Wells, of Webb City, Mo., today told Judge Moran in the District Court that he sought a decree of divorce from his wife, Sarah M., whom he married at that city October 1, 1882, because she was "too much preacher" in his home.

"What do you mean by that?" queried the court.

"Well, she was too fond of a certain preacher's company," Wells answered.

The objectionable pastoral calls were made when the Wells family lived in San Jose, Cal., and the husband declared that when he remonstrated with his wife, she told him she would keep whatever company she chose. That was two years ago. Mrs. Wells then left home, according to the evidence today, and the contractor husband six months ago came to Reno. The couple have three grown children.

MADE ILL BY A "JOKE."

Some One Sent an Undertaker on a Fool's Errand in Stockton and the Wife Fainted.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
STOCKTON, March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In an effort to discover who perpetrated a ghastly joke on J. W. McCuen and family, Chief of Police Briarty had two young men of this city in his office, but, after subjecting them to several questioning, they were released. Both denied any knowledge of the affair and though there was strong suspicion that they caused the trouble, the officer says he was unable to prove anything.

Shortly after 10 o'clock one night the first of the week in a telephone at a local undertaking establishment rang and the man who answered was informed that death had occurred in the McCuen home. The firm was requested to call to the body, as was the man who answered. Both members of the firm being acquainted with the McCuens made the trip on the dead wagon to console the survivors. On reaching the home, Mrs. McCuen answered the bell and when questioned about the death she fainted. A physician has been attending her ever since.

A reward of $50 has not been sufficient to solve the affair and the officers are still investigating. In case the mischief-making couple are caught they will be made to pay dearly for their cruel joke.

MAN CRIBS ON THE STAND.

Former Banker Tells an Inquisitive Jury Why He and Another Officer Had Resigned.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
BOISE (Idaho) March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Worn out by the direct and cross-examination to which he was subjected during the entire day, George H. Kester, the accused Lewiston National Bank defaulter on trial in the Federal Court here jointly with William F. Kettnerbach, added a dramatic closing to the case of the defense late this afternoon when he openly wept on the stand.

The pathetic scene was brought about unexpectedly through the pointed query of one of the jurors who asked Kester why Kettnerbach and he had resigned from the bank in July, 1907.

Kester broke down instantly and cried audibly several minutes, his form shaking with heaving sobs. Partially recovering, he explained that they had been indicted for embezzlement by a Federal grand jury in Moscow for timber frauds, and, rather than have an official of the bank under a cloud, both he and Kettnerbach resigned.

The jury men appeared to be visibly affected by Kester's tears.

When the defense closed a few minutes later Judge Beasly requested the jurors not to deliberate on the evidence or attempt to reach conclusions until after the closing arguments and instructions of the court are heard to-morrow.

OAKLAND DOCTOR
NO VICE NOVICE

Man Stabbed by Girl's Father
Had Bad Reputation.

Driven Out of Sonoma After Involved in Scandals.

Acquaintance Posts Police on His Former Record.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
OAKLAND (Cal.) March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With his wronged but forgiving wife almost constantly at his bedside, Dr. A. P. Byron, who was stabbed by J. B. Patrick Tuesday night, when the latter discovered his daughter in the physician's room, still lies in a critical condition at a local hospital.

He is no better today, and unless his condition soon shows improvement his chances of recovery will be greatly reduced, said the attending physician. Last night was more restful than the previous day for Byron, but the favorable symptoms disappeared this morning.

Dr. Byron's reputation was further besmirched here today by information made public about him by Walter C. Nolan, a teacher in the Monroe Evening School of San Francisco, and a special student at the University of California, who lives at Berkeley.

Nolan says Dr. Byron was involved in at least two other affairs with girls when he was practicing at Sonoma, in Sonoma county, and that as the result of one scandal, he, Nolan, thrashed the physician. Byron was driven out of the town by public sentiment following this escapade, says Nolan.

The statement of the school teacher is as follows:

"I was teaching school at Sonoma when Byron was practicing there several years ago. We were rather friendly because I, who knew something of his reputation, had used my influence in keeping him out of a lodge to which I belonged."

"One day a girl rushed from his office to tell her father that Byron had attempted to take unwarranted liberties with her. The girl's father went to Byron immediately to demand an explanation. Byron told him that he was just trying to find out from the girl what my relations with her had been."

"This involved me in the case and I demanded a thorough investigation. I was exonerated."

"Then I gave Byron a good whipping to satisfy my feelings. They made it so hot for him that he had to leave town."

"The investigation brought to light the fact that Byron had figured in two other shady affairs. The people of Sonoma showed their confidence in me by making me principal of the school and later president of the Board of Education."

Byron's wife defends her husband against the charges of Nolan by saying that she had investigated the accusations of immorality against her husband and on account of his "pull" in Sonoma, was able to partially substantiate them, apparently.

George B. Patrick, a brother of the girl involved in the present case, learned first of Byron's past from Nolan and gave the information to the police.

ARIZONA ASSAYER ARRESTED.

San Francisco Police Obtain Confession of Gold Theft From Former Employee of Kingman Company.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PORTLAND (Or.) March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frank A. Vanderlip, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury during President Roosevelt's second administration, said today that Mr. Roosevelt would not be the next President. He believes Mr. Taft will run again and be elected.

"I see Portland is preparing to give Roosevelt a big welcome and hurrah," said Vanderlip this morning. "He likes it."

"Do you think he will be the next President?" Vanderlip was asked.

"No," he said. "I think Taft has made good and will be re-elected beyond a doubt."

Vanderlip said he had not seen Roosevelt while on his trip through California, though both were in San Francisco at the same time.

Vanderlip is president of the National City Bank of New York and is one of the Executive Committee of the Harriman lines—it being in the latter capacity that he is making his present trip.

He arrived last night on a private car accompanied by Mrs. Vanderlip, W. H. Kierlan, an old friend now living in Spokane, and Amer Higgins and C. V. Rich of New York.

WITH A NEW GOLD PEN.

Unlike Tom Jefferson et al., the Governor Will Not Employ a Quill to Sign Exposition Measure.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] By telephone today, Gov. Johnson, who is in San Francisco, announced that he will sign the San Diego-Panama-Pacific Exposition bill tomorrow forenoon at 10:30 o'clock. The affair will be an important one for San Diego, and in order to have the signing done in proper shape, the Governor will use a special gold pen presented by San Diego.

Assemblyman Hinkle, of San Diego, was arrested today, and Commissioner of that city, will be on hand with other representatives from the southern city.

PREDICTS A TAFT VICTORY.

Friend and Former Office Holder Under Roosevelt Thinks Colored Has No Chance Against Executive.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—William Kellogg, an assayer, recently employed by the Gold Road Mining Company, operating near Kingman, Ariz., was arrested today, and, according to the police, admitted that he had taken $2555 worth of gold precipitate from the company's cyanide plant. The finding of the gold at the shop of A. Graciar, a San Francisco dealer in precious metals, by three city detectives, led to Kellogg's arrest.

The detective who arrested Kellogg thought he would get a gold pen for himself.

He at first denied the theft, but in response to prolonged questioning said he had taken the gold and come to San Francisco, after fifteen years service with the Gold Road Company.

INQUIRIES ABOUT PENSIONS.

Veteran California School Teachers Want to Know if They Are Within the Law Not Yet Signed.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Although the Williams school teachers pension bill has not yet been signed by the Governor, applications for pensions are already beginning to pour into the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Edward H. Hyatt.

"Every mail brings a few requests for information," said Hyatt today.

Notable among those inquiring about the provisions of the new bill is J. R. McClelland, veteran principal of the Oakland High School, who has seen 25 years of service in the schools of the State. Another of the writers is Kate E. Peck of Alameda, who has seen 29 years and six months teaching. A. McKillop, who now resides in Seattle, Wash., and who taught in the California schools from 1871 to 1891, has written to learn whether or not he comes within the provisions of the bill.

On account of the inquiries, Hyatt has procured a quantity of the printed copies of the pension bill and is including one with each answer.

The Williams bill was passed at the session of the Legislature just closed. It creates a retirement salary fund which comes from the collection of succession and inheritance taxes.

WOMAN BIGAMIST SENT UP.
DRAWS FOUR YEAR TERM.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, March 31.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Ann Koehler, convicted in Department Eleven of the Superior Court of having committed a bigamous marriage with John Beck, an Alameda county rancher, was today sentenced to serve four years at San Quentin. Mrs. Koehler is a daughter of Mrs. Amelia Lowenstein, who conducted a matrimonial agency on Geary street. Mrs. Koehler was the "dummy" used in the agency to marry men with money and after the ceremony was performed to "get" to the money. Beck's experience cost him $2000. Mrs. Koehler's husband, Louis Koehler, has been convicted in connection with the same transaction with obtaining money under false pretenses. An effort is being made to have him probated because the couple have five children.

Young Joe Rivers,

who is to begin training at Venice for his bout with Franklin Conley.

Down to Business.

JOE RIVERS STARTS HEAVY TRAINING FOR CONLEY BOUT.

LITTLE Joe Rivers, the Mexican fighter, moved to Venice yesterday, where he will inaugurate his two weeks' training today, to prepare himself for battle with Franklin Conley at Vernon on April 15.

Rivers has fixed up his old training quarters, where he conditioned himself for other ring battles and will follow out the same principles of training used in preparing himself for the Webster battle.

The first day's work will be limited to only light gymnasium stunts and a short workout on the road. Sunday the first boxing will probably be indulged in.

Rivers begins his stage of training in better physical shape than he has ever been. He weighs in the neighborhood of 120 pounds and will have little trouble getting down to 122 pounds in fifteen days.

Conley will not begin his final work of preparation for battle before the middle of next week. He will use the same quarters that Wolgast used at Jack Doyle's.

By a week from tomorrow both fighters will be down to hard boxing and spectators will then be welcomed at both camps. Conley will have a half-dozen men working out with him, while Rivers will have but two men in his camp.

SECOND HOCKEY MATCH.

Ball to Be Bullied Off This Afternoon at Santa Monica Between Two Past Teams.

The second championship hockey match between Los Angeles and Santa Monica is to be played this afternoon on the old polo grounds. The sphere will be "bullied-off" at 2:30 o'clock.

Santa Monica won the first match with a score of seven goals to nothing. The match this afternoon should be highly exciting, as P. J. Higgins has a strong team back of him and hopes to turn the tables on his opponents.

Los Angeles will be represented by the following players: P. J. Higgins, captain; R. O. A. Chancellor, A. E. Yorton, R. H. Stott, J. F. W. Allan, C. Bromfield, Miss Margarette Miller, Miss Millard Bord, Miss Maxie Crosby, Miss N. A. Nelson, Mrs. L. M. Bromfield.

Santa Monica will be represented by a different team than that which lost to Duarte last week. P. J. Dudley has been hustling and has assembled a very strong aggregation. Two halves of thirty-five minutes will be played.

SAN DIEGO TRACK MEET.

Econdido and San Diego High Schools to Settle County Championship in Meet Today.

(Special Correspondence of The Times.)

SAN DIEGO, March 31.—San Diego and Escondido high schools, the old track rivals of San Diego county, are to fight for the championship for the present season in the county meet on Russ Oval tomorrow afternoon.

Escondido won the honors last year by a large margin. The local boys have been working hard all season for this event and are confident of turning the tables. Escondido aggregation. Last season he made 21 points for his team. This season he is faster than ever. Aside from the sprints, the points will likely be well divided. There will be teams entered from Oceanside, National City and Fallbrook. These athletes are only thirds for a few stray strays and thirds, however.

ATTIENL BEATS BURNS.

NEW YORK, March 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) In a fast bout of ten rounds scintillating with brilliant boxing, Abie Attienl, the featherweight champion of the world, fought Frankie Burns, the near bantamweight champion, to a standstill at the National Sporting Club tonight. Twice during the mill in ninth and tenth rounds Attienl knocked Burns to his knees.

ROUX BEATS DIXON.

MEMPHIS, March 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) After an absence of several months Tommy Dixon of New York returned here to the scene of many former triumphs to meet Leo Roux, who claims the Southern championship in an eight-round bout. The decision to Roux, who

U.S.C. Boys in Good Condition to Meet Stanford This Afternoon on Cardinal Oval.

(By Direct Wire to The Times.)

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The U.S.C. track team is to meet Stanford here tomorrow morning. The Puritans reached the campus from Pacific Grove last night. Thirteen athletes are in the squad.

Coach Cromwell says his men are in good condition with the exception of Walton, the half-miler, who has a rusty knee. The Southerners expect to grab a large number of points from the Cardinals. At California last week they snared six firsts and tied for another. They are practically certain of taking three or four firsts here and have a good chance for more.

Throop, the Puritan sprinter, will be one of the favorites. He is a fast runner and not only all of these, but the membership of all the Southern California trap-shooting clubs has been invited to attend.

The Urbica Gun Club of San Bernardino; Santa Ana Gun Club of Santa Ana; Ventura Gun Club of Ventura; Oxnard Gun Club of Oxnard; and the Whittier and Covina clubs are expected to send representatives, in some cases enough to form five-man teams, to represent their home organizations and compete in a team shoot. Secretary Walter Clement and President A. W. Bruner will prepare for a turnout of 125 men, and promise that those who come need not bother about lunch, as assorted sandwiches, alleged pie and coffee will be procurable on the field of battle.

BULLARD AFTER GLIDDEN.

Geo. Purdy Bullard, not satisfied with having triumphed over the greatest road racer ever held in the country, now has the bug to bring the Glidden tour to the coast by the way of Phoenix.

BASEBALL GAME.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The second intercollegiate baseball game between Stanford and California is to be played here tomorrow afternoon. The Cardinals dropped the first game to their rivals. Gillilan of Los Angeles again pitched for Stanford. Henshaw of Downey, who did not get into the first contest, will play in the outfield.

WEATHER TOO COLD.

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—The weather today turned cold and raw, causing a postponement of the opening of the professional baseball season in Philadelphia until tomorrow when the major league clubs of this city will begin their series of games for the local championship.

AERO RACE POSTPONED.

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The aero race scheduled for today has been postponed until tomorrow because of the cold weather.

DISBROW BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD.

(Associated Press Night Report.)

PALBO BEACH (Fla.) March 31.—Two world's records were broken by the same driver in the automobile races here today. Disbrow, driving a Pope-Hartford, in the 300-mile race, made the first fifty miles in 37m. 32.90s. The former record of 38m. 51s. was held by Fletcher and established with a Detrich machine at Daytona, Fla., on January 31, 1905.

Disbrow's time for the 200 miles was 24m. 31m. 12s., establishing a new high mark for the distance at straightaway. The record broken was that made by Doherty in a Stoddard-Dayton, 24m. 2m. 22s., at Galveston, August 5, 1910.

Disbrow's time for 250 miles, 24m. 14m. 55s., is a record, as no time for that distance straightaway has been recorded.

BIMINI TEAM WINS.

Duarte A.C. Swimmers Shut Out in Fast Game of Water Polo With Local Water Ducks in Bimini Plunge.

By a classy exhibition of team work and clever scoring by Roy Sweet, the fast Bimini polo team last night defeated the Duarte A. C. Club by a score of 5 to 0 in the Bimini tank.

The local swimmer, respecting one of the hardest games of their present season when they meet the Venice water ducks in the beach town tonight, the Bimini team will play for the Bimini team: Roy Sweet, forward; Emil Becker, guard; Tom Howlett, goal; "Billy" Hodgcock, forward; James Cromwell, guard; Cliff Bowes, sprint.

TWENTY-FOUR-HOUR RACE.

Two additional entries for the twenty-four-hour race scheduled for April 8 and 9 at the Motordrome, were received yesterday. The Buick and Amplic were nominated to start in the long grueling drive. The drivers will be announced Monday. Manager Walter Hempel received a wire from Jacksonville, Fla., last night, stating that the Cole "3" entered for the race here has been shipped by express and that drivers John Jenkins and Lewis Edmonds were on the same train with the car. The Cole outfit should arrive here Wednesday morning.

ANNUAL TENNIS.

SANTA CRUZ (Cal.) March 31.—Arrangements have been completed for the annual meet of the Pacific States Lawn Tennis Association, to be held from June 19 to June 25, on the newly constructed courts in this city. It is understood the change of the meet to Santa Cruz from Del Monte will be permanent.

TRAVIS IS SCRATCH.

NEW YORK, March 31.—Walter J. Travis is placed alone on scratch in the annual spring handicap list of the Metropolitan Golf Association, just decreased from 10 to 11 strokes. The champion, is allowed 1 stroke, and Jerome D. Travers is at 2, with Finley S. Douglas and Gilman P. Tiffany.

SQUARS BEAT PUEBLO.

PUEBLO (Colo.) March 31.—The Boston Red Sox defeated a picked team here this evening. Score, 10 to 2. Hits: 11; errors: 2. Runs: 10; hits: 9; errors: 2. Batteries: McFalle and Nunnemaker; Dunlap and Whalen.

SAUCER SMASHERS PLANNING BIG FOR CLUB OPENING SHOOT SUNDAY.

BY EDWIN L. HEDDERLY.

UNLESS the weather should turn unkind, the opening shoot of the newly-organized Los Angeles Gun Club at Venice, Sunday, will be the greatest gathering of bluecock breakers ever brought together in this vicinity.

The club numbers over one hundred and twenty charter members, and not only all of these, but the membership of all the Southern California trap-shooting clubs has been invited to attend.

The Urbica Gun Club of San Bernardino; Santa Ana Gun Club of Santa Ana; Ventura Gun Club of Ventura; Oxnard Gun Club of Oxnard; and the Whittier and Covina clubs are expected to send representatives, in some cases enough to form five-man teams, to represent their home organizations and compete in a team shoot. Secretary Walter Clement and President A. W. Bruner will prepare for a turnout of 125 men, and promise that those who come need not bother about lunch, as assorted sandwiches, alleged pie and coffee will be procurable on the field of battle.

Both traps are installed ready for use, and two squads will shoot at once. All details of the programme are being arranged, and there will be a full day's shooting provided for, and those who wish to burn up a couple of pounds of powder will be given the chance. The club is in a good shape to add a sum of money as any other new club, and that means in no shape at all, so the gunners can make their own money.

The grounds are arranged at the Venice Athletic Park, please those who have seen them, very well. Last Sunday the club was open for the first time, the occasion being an informal practice shoot, and although this had not been widely noted about, the club was put in an appearance and most of them took a few whiffs at the festive bluecock with results that will figure vastly different when the same shooters have had a month or two of practice. Everyone hereabouts is badly out of form at the inanimate target game.

President Bruner says that there will be a trap set aside for the small-bore cranks, if they so elect, and all of the twenty-gauge persuasion who desire to dust a few events of targets will be welcomed, and given a chance to fight it out in their own class if they desire without being forced to go on at catchweights. This is a feature that is likely to become very popular in the new club, as a great percentage of Phoenix. Chairman Batchelder of the A.A.A. Contest Board was in Phoenix last week and Bullard entertained him by driving him over the Arizona roads in his Apperson Jack Rabbit. The A.A.A. man felt favorably towards the idea and assured Bullard that he would take the matter up immediately upon his return East.

Over thirty thousand miles of service is the record recently established by a Diamond tire that equipped the Locomobile owned by Mrs. Wm. Winters of Spokane, Wash. John Raymond of Palo Alto, who finally removed the tire, stated to the local branch of the Diamond company that it was taken off at last because of its ragged appearance, although not all in yet.

The motorcycles used by the motorcycle squad of the Chicago police force which escorted Col. Roosevelt about that city on Washington's birthday, when he was chief speaker at the celebration, was equipped with Goodyear "Blue Streak" tires. The car used by Chief of Police Steward was fitted with No. 10-1/2 tires, as well as the machine used by the assistant chief.

CRIME REVEALS ROMANCE.

Aged Chicago Money Lender, Killed by Robbers, Had Virtually Bought Another Man's Wife.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, March 31.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Revealing a strange romance in the life of the victim, Levi A. Raven, an aged money lender, was murdered in his office at 1425 South State street today. The crime was probably committed by persons who believed that he had a large amount of money on the premises.

Raven, who had never married, lived at 2553 South Park avenue with a 6-year-old son, Lewis Raven, and an adopted daughter, Miss Ollie Riggs, whose mother was the mother of Raven's son. The bulk of an estate said to be worth considerably more than $150,000, is represented to have been left to the boy.

Several years ago Raven made the acquaintance of Mrs. Beatrice Riggs and fell in love with her. Raven is said to have paid the woman's husband a large amount to leave her in order that she could get a divorce. Afterward Raven established Mrs. Riggs in a handsomely furnished flat at 613 Loomis street where he lived with her as his wife.

This morning Raven took $2300 to the Commercial National Bank as shown by his bank book and it is thought that this is the amount the robbers calculated to steal.

S.S.S. REMOVES THE CAUSE OF CATARRH

Catarrh usually begins with irritated, inflamed membranes of the head, nose and throat, from which there is a constant and copious discharge of watery matter. This comes from inflammation of these mucous surfaces and is caused by catarrhal matters and impurities in the circulation. Nature intends that these membranes shall be nourished by the blood, but waste matters and impurities deposited into these delicate parts, sets up inflammation and the discharge is a natural result. When this secretion begins to dry it becomes thick and sticky, adhering to the back portion of the mouth and throat, causing the "hawking" and straining so troublesome to Catarrh sufferers.

Other ordinary symptoms are caused from congestion of the circulation by the catarrhal impurities. There is only one way to cure Catarrh, and that is to remove the cause by purifying the blood. Washes, sprays, inhalations, etc., do not reach the circulation, and therefore can only afford temporary relief. S.S.S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter, and at the same time building up the system by its unequalled tonic effects. In other words S.S.S. cures Catarrh by purifying the blood so that the mucous surfaces and linings of the body are supplied with healthy nourishment instead of being continually irritated from the catarrhal impurities. Then the inflamed membranes heal, the discharge is checked, head noises cease, the stomach is toned up, and the throat is no longer clogged with mucus. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free. S.S.S. is for sale at drug stores.

FILIBUSTERING
CASE WEDNESDAY

First to Come Before Federal Courts Set.

Soldiers Making Arrest Say
Evidence Is Clear.

Trouble-Stricken Woman Refuses to Take Food.

SAN DIEGO, March 31.—The first case of alleged filibustering to come before the local Federal Court since the outbreak of the Mexican revolution
will be heard next Wednesday before
United States Commissioner H. T.
Christians.

Sallina Aldena, who declares he is a native of Guatemala, is the defendant. Aldena was arrested March 23,
at the foot of the Dulzura hill by Corporal Fred J. Allen and Private R. H.
Jones of the Eighth Infantry. The officers charge that at the time of the arrest Aldena was en route from the camp of the insurgents at Tacate to Los Angeles to communicate with the officials of the revolutionary junta.

The American soldiers say they were in charge of a supply train bound for Tacate when they sighted Aldena hiding in the brush near the road. They took him in charge and relieved him of a rifle and revolver and then turned him loose. Later the officers returned to Dulzura, where they found Aldena
and placed him under arrest.

The accused was this morning taken before Commissioner Christians to be given a preliminary hearing, which,
however, was continued at the request of the Federal authorities, who announced that a deputy from the office of the United States District Attorney in Los Angeles would not be able to come here to prosecute the case before next Wednesday.

Aldena states that he has been in the United States for eighteen years. He speaks English fluently. The soldiers who made the arrest claim to have evidence that Aldena was sent into the United States for the purpose of recruiting the rebel forces. Aldena is in jail in default of a $500 bond.

WONT EAT.
Mrs. Amanda Bucher, who since a wrong to one of her young daughters
committed several weeks ago by a man sent to jail, has refused to eat. She declares she will starve herself to death. She was arrested on a charge of insanity after giving policemen an exciting midnight chase through front
yards and along the water tunnel.

STAMPER ARRIVES.
The American-Hawaiian steamer
Alaskan, due yesterday, reached port
this morning, bringing a cargo of 1100
tons of freight for delivery to points
in Southern California. The steamer came from Santa Cruz and was delayed by the thick fog that for several days and nights have prevailed
along the Mexican coast.

ACTRESS WEDS.
Frank H. Bennett, a young business man of Phoenix, Ariz., was secretly married here Wednesday to Genevieve Miller, a singer and dancer professionally known as Genevieve De Lacour.
Norie and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Loomis,
brother-in-law and sister of the bride,
were aware of the wedding until today, when the secret leaked out.
The bride has for several seasons
traveled with a musical comedy company that has toured the Southwest country. While playing Phoenix several months ago she was introduced to Bennett. Acquaintance ripened into love and an engagement. The wedding was set for Easter Sunday. Miss De Lacour's company recently came to San Diego for an extended stay. The star is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles H. De Lacour, old residents of this city who were not let into the secret of the hurry-up wedding, decided by the sudden arrival of Bennett. The couple intended to keep the secret until after they had returned to make the announcement. However fate played otherwise. The secret leaked out last night when the bridegroom received a message urging him to presence in San Francisco. He decided to leave on the Owl train. His bride not wishing to break her theatrical engagement could not go with him.
They then planned a short honeymoon
in Los Angeles. Accompanied by Mr.
and Mrs. Loomis they went to Los Angeles on the Owl, which gave the bridegroom time to fulfill his role at last night's performance. From Los Angeles Bennett continued to San Francisco today,
the others returning to San Diego on the afternoon train in time for Mrs.
Bennett to go on with her part at tonight's performance.

MEASLES ON BOARD.
Measles have broken out on board
the battleship South Dakota and five men have been transferred to local hospitals. Sporadic cases occupy the attention of the fleet surgeons on other ships of the fleet now in the harbor.
The gunboat Princeton left for the target range. The auxiliary cruiser Buffalo sailed today for San Francisco,
as did the Glacier. No report was received Friday from the torpedo vessels
searching for a lost target raft in the Santa Barbara channel.

EL CENTRO, March 31.—[Exclusive

season. The thermometer has marked

ley is rapidly ripening under this warmth. Imperial Valley will have the earliest barley harvest in its history.

Riverside lad, was given five days in the County Jail by Justice Hannan this morning. He was found guilty of disturbance of the peace.

ladies.

WOULD CLOSE SALOONS EARLY.

Santa Barbara Contemplates an Action Which Would Set New Record
in Liquor Regulation.

SANTA BARBARA, March 31.—Following hard upon the announcement that the Commercial Club would endeavor to have all saloons closed at 6 o'clock every night in the week
comes the report of a petition, which will soon find its way to the City Council, asking that the saloons also be closed at that hour.

Should this be made an initiatory measure forcing the Council to call an election on it, another bitter liquor controversy will be precipitated. The saloon men are now awaiting the result of the circulation of the petition to see whether the necessary 25 per cent of the voters, making is mandatory for the Council to call a special election, can be secured.

BUYS ESTATE.
H. W. DeForest, director of the Southern Pacific, has purchased the Bates estate in Montecito, consisting of twenty-one acres. It adjoins the McCormick and Gillipie places. Fris-

Forest will lay out the grounds and design the house, which it is stated
will be one of the finest in the colony.

PROTEST ON IDYLLWILD AND AULD ROUTES.

Orders Issued Discontinuing the Former for the Winter and Reducing the Latter to a Thrice-A-Week Service—Prosperous Condition of the Country.

SAN JACINTO, March 31.—There is a good deal of criticism among the residents of the rural sections in this part of the county of the action of the Postoffice Department in discontinuing
the Idyllwild Star route and changing the Auld route from a daily to a thrice-a-week service. It is claimed that mail matter on the Keen Camp-Idyllwild route has never before been so heavy as it was during the past winter. A number of families have been staying at Idyllwild and Keen Camp all winter, and transient have been numerous at both resorts. In the surrounding stock country new land owners have settled during the past year. So far as the amount of mail carried is concerned, that evidently
has no influence with the department.
Under the latest ruling, which went into effect Monday, carrier service between San Jacinto and Idyllwild is discontinued, excepting during the summer months, when a daily service will go into effect.

The Winchester-Auld route has been changed from a daily to a thrice-a-week service, and residents there believe they have just cause for complaint. The country about Auld is being settled rapidly, and in the past winter, numerous new families have located and built homes in that rich grain-growing section. Places that were deserted during the years of drouth are all occupied again, and the country never looked so prosperous before. It is claimed that the mail carried on that route has steadily increased during the past twelve months,
and with big harvests assured this gradual increase should continue during the present year. With such conditions prevailing it is difficult to understand just why orders should come from the department to curtail the delivery system. Taxpayers and residents are determined that the new order of things will not be accepted without a protest. Petitions have already been prepared and will be forwarded to Washington stating the conditions and asking for an investigation.

REALTY SALES.
Mrs. Alice Kiser has sold her house
and lots on Montrose avenue to F. P.
Whitcomb, through R. H. Cross, the consideration being $1500. The same agency reports the sale of William Hicks's residence and acre lot on Main street to Supervisor John Shaver, consideration $250. Frank Bunker has bought the F. H. Fowler home place, Olive Terrace, and will move on to the property the middle of April. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will occupy their adjoining home on the west. W. T. Oliver reports the sale of five acres of his home place on Mountain avenue to John Shaver. J. W. Calvert and C.
H. H. Eaton purchased twenty acres at Fruitvale from J. E. McDaniel. The property carries a water right, and the consideration is $300. It is announced that the H. Brothers ranch, purchased the Percy Walker ranch at Sage, formerly the old Clogston place,
the consideration being $3000.

FOR REORGANIZED CHAMBER.
A public meeting is called for next Monday evening at the City Hall, the purpose being to reorganize the Chamber of Commerce. Outside interests seeking information about this place
has made a live and wide-awake
Chamber of Commerce a necessity.
One hundred and twenty-five acres
on the Walker ranch, southwest of town, have been graded and prepared for alfalfa. The tract will be irrigated from a pumping station on the ranch,
which has a capacity ample to furnish an abundant water supply.
A party of innocent Sunday-school pupils nearly caused an uprising
among Mexicans of the San Jacinto Mountains Wednesday, that for a few minutes threatened to outclass the insurrectionists' demonstrations at Mexicali. The Sunday-school boys had gone on a "hike" over the Hanning trail and one of the party, mounted
the local band, carried his bugle.
At Poppet's ranch a number of Mexicans employed there were thrown into a high state of excitement as the martial music re-echoed through the canyon, believing that a party of insurrectionists was passing. The Mexicans were crowded about the boys and sought information and ready to join in the supposed march upon Mexico.
The Sunday-school teacher explained to the excited pupils that his party was one of peace and not of warfare.

TWO SKELETONS
KEY TO MYSTERY.

EXPLAIN DISAPPEARANCE OF
TWO MEN YEARS AGO.

Recent Rains Uncover the Grin-
ing Skulls of E. W. Penny and Son George, Who Have Been Missing Eleven Years—Shoes of One Enables one to Identify Remains.

REDLANDS, March 31.—Two human skeletons, unearthed by the recent storms, have cleared up the mystery
surrounding the disappearance of E.
W. Penny and his son, George, who have been missing for eleven years.
The scene of their disappearance was in the Wah Wah Springs district, between Bullfrog, Nev., and Milford, Utah. The search, which extended over eighteen months, embraced all the county, Inyo and Imperial Valley, besides Arizona and Nevada.

The two men had gone overland in a prairie schooner for their mining property in the Wah Wah district.
When they failed to return home a search was instituted. After three months, their wagon was found buried in a wash. This discovery led to the authorities employing trained Indian trailers and desert runners to take up the search. Fortunes were spent by the various counties and States in this quest, and excitement continued unabated for many months.

Monday, in a lonely wash, on the eastern edge of the Wah Wah district, prospector broke the find a skeleton arm protruding from the yellow clay within a few feet of his camp. The find, which had swept the gulch, had disappeared. The flesh gone, and evidence of death was one of the things the storm turned up.

The frightened prospector hurriedly communicated with the authorities and the investigation, which was at once undertaken, resulted in uncovering a human form. Within a few feet a second one was found. The flesh had disappeared, but the shoes of both were almost wholly intact, and from these Alvin Penny, a surviving son, positively identified the remains as those of his father and brother.

A careful investigation is now undertaken by Judge J. Bledsoe, who has from which the murderers may be apprehended.

HEAVY PENALTY
NAMED BY COURT.

PROPRIETOR OF POOL ROOM
GIVEN THE LIMIT.

Pleads Guilty on Attorney's Advice
and Is Fined Three Hundred Dollars and Given Sixty Days in the County Jail—District Attorney to Vigorous Prosecute Gamblers.

REVERSID, March 31.—August
Jure, the proprietor of a poolroom in Beaumont, was arrested in the place
and brought to Riverside yesterday on the charge of conducting a place where gambling was being carried on. After consultation with an attorney, Jure
decided to plead guilty, to the charge
and Justice Webb fined him the limit, $300 fine and sixty days imprisonment
in the County Jail.
Jure's mother and his wife came to the city today and called upon District Atty. Evans and Justice Webb in a vain endeavor to induce those officers to modify the fine. The mother of the prisoner, on the query of the District Attorney, admitted that she had served
time in the San Bernardino county jail for bootlegging. There has been much complaint about gambling being allowed in the pool halls in various parts of the county.

These places are given a license
without any charge, but there is an ordinance forbidding any games of chance or playing for money in them.
It is stated that the latter provision is flagrantly violated and the District Attorney is determined to weed out such places.

FIRST CONCERT.

The first open-air concert in Fairmont Park for the season will be given Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Riverside Military Band.

At a recent meeting of the City Council agreed to pay the band $400 for the series of ten concerts to be given on Sunday afternoons during the summer.
The dates of these diversions to be fixed at the discretion of the managing the band, Harry H. Woodward. They have selected the dates as follows: April 2 and 16, May 7 and 21, June 4 and 18, July 2, 16 and 30 and August 13. This concert series was very popular during last summer and so many people of the city were entertained by them that the Council will have good expenditure in voting the sum appropriated for them again.

WILL CONTEST.

The case of the contest of the will
of David Harman, deceased, is occupying the attention of the Superior Court this afternoon. The decedent died in December last, leaving an estate consisting of real and personal property
to the value of about $20,000, the property being situated in Los Angeles. The will was contested by the heirs, who were three wills made by Mr. Harman, all quite different in regard to the disposal of the property. The will which is being contested is believed to be the bulk of it to the widow, whom the decedent married several years ago.
The contest is brought by a son and a nephew of the decedent.

MISS FORT SODESTRUM will give a piano recital this evening in the offices of the Glenwood Inn and invitations have been issued to a number.
Miss Sodestrum has just completed a which she won great credit. She is a graduate of Oberlin, O., conservatory

and has also taken instruction under Herr Becker, the celebrated pianist,
in Los Angeles.

CROSSING ROW.
The crossing glix-up between the Crescent Railway Company and the Pacific Electric Company which came

when the agreement between the two companies was signed.
The Crescent company caused an engine and cars to be placed on their tracks at a point where the Pacific
Electric survey would cause that line's track to cross the Crescent right of way. The engine was placed there to prevent any interference with the crossing under the agreement between the two companies was signed by the Pacific Electric. A deputy sheriff stood guard at the place of the crossing to see that no interference was attempted with the engine and cars.
The Pacific Electric officials yesterday signed the agreement to the satisfaction of the Crescent company and the work on the Cotton-avenue line is progressing.

GAME WARDEN
SENDS BIRDS.

BLACKBIRDS, HORNED LARKS
AND OTHER KINDS INCLUDED.

Sent to California Fish and Game Commission to Determine the Varieties Which Make War on Rural Interests—Man Charged With Robbery Pleads Guilty.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 31.—
County Game Warden Vale today
shipped to H. C. Bryant, assistant secretary of the California Fish and Game Commission at Berkeley, four dozen blackbirds, robins, horned larks
and other birds, for determination of their varieties.

The birds were shot in localities
where newly-sown barley
fields, blooming orchards and other ranch interests are being attacked by birds.

Mr. Vale will make shipments every second and third Monday in each month. The expert at Berkeley examines the crops of the birds, and by this means it is hoped to settle definitely the mooted question as to the damage these birds do. Friends of the birds believe that the experiments will prove that the protection
which the birds give to the ranching
and fruit interests more than over-balance the harm done.

GIVEN TEN YEARS.
Thomas Stanton this morning pleaded guilty to grand larceny before Judge B. F. Bledsoe and was sentenced to serve ten years in San Quan-
tina. Stanton was a pal of J. E. Linden, who was sentenced to thirty years
last Monday by Judge Bledsoe for highway robbery. Stanton and Linden waylaid W. W. Morgan, shooting Morgan through the shoulder when he refused to obey their command to throw up his hands. Stanton was tried first,
the jury disagreeing ten times for acquittal. A few days later Linden was tried and convicted. This conviction, together with the long term
meted out to Linden, determined Stanton not to run the risk of getting a like sentence by going to trial again.

LOOK UP DATA.
San Diego lawyers are making inquiries here for information on the death of William J. Jobbitt, a brakeman, who was killed in a railroad
wreck at Victorville, August 5, 1907.
The wreck was caused by the inability of hand-brakes to hold a train of freight cars. The train got away on the Cajon grade. The coroner's jury held the railroad responsible for the death of Jobbitt's death. The San Diego lawyers write for a certified copy of the testimony taken at the inquest, also of the death certificate and verdict of the jury.

FIREMEN PAY.
Miss M. Lerner, the San Francisco evangelist, who was run down and injured by the new auto fire truck
Wednesday, while Al Glaz, the driver,
was on a practice run, will be cared for by the members of the Fire Department. At a meeting held by the firemen it was decided to pay all the expenses incident to Miss Lerner's injuries. She is at the Ramona Hospital and recovering.

EXECUTED!

Worthless Existence Is Brought to Ignominious End.

Disturber of Peace and Harmony
Summarily Dealt With After Patience Had Long Ceased to Be a Virtue.

STAY OF EXECUTION DENIED.

By S. Phenoidal Fissure,
(Field Correspondent.)

Coincident with the Mexican difficulty there has been enacted a revolution without the roll of drum, the clanging of cymbals, the clank of sabers, the tread of infantry, the crackling of musketry or any of the panoplies of war.

Molaris III has been executed.
The punishment meted out to the offender was intended to fit the crime,
which had resulted in a complete dis-
organization of constitutional normality. Gen. Deblilly, by conduct prejudicial to the service, had permitted
Ordinary Indisposition to become Gen.
R. E. Morse aided by Gen. Pain, whose campaign had vanquished Gen. Placido.
Luke O. Cites, Phag. O. Cites, Mike Royce and Bacillus Maximus had aided in the unhappy condition of affairs.

Molaris III, the responsible instigator, more familiarly known as the Third Molar or Wisdom Tooth, being the chief cause of all the trouble, was tried, found guilty and duly executed at the office of Palacios Parker, 614-632 South Broadway, the execution being conducted without pain by his painless system, which is equally applicable to all dental operations, so that those suffering from defective wisdom teeth, or any other defective teeth, may have any dental operation performed without pain. Now is the time to Obey that Insistent Impulse. See Painless Parker first. Do not allow your system to become disorganized, your peace of mind disturbed, your personal appearance impaired by defective
teeth, because it is no longer necessary to endure pain and suffering.

WORKER FALLS TO HIS DEATH.

Employee of Holly Sugar Company
at Huntington Beach Fractures Skull
and Leg in Fall.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, March 31.—
A man whose name is believed to be McLaughlin died last night as the result of injuries received in a fall at the Holly Sugar Company factory yesterday morning. The man was a laborer,
and gave the name of Mc-Laughlin to the foreman.

While at work he fell from the second to the first floor, fracturing his skull and one leg. He was taken to a hospital at Santa Ana, where an operation was performed. The man did not regain consciousness. He was about 40 years of age and was a well-built, strong man. Because of the fact that he had a return ticket to San Dimas, it is thought that he came here from that place. The officials of the sugar company are making inquiries

When He Was Timid. HOPED GREELEY WOULD REFUSE. BURDETTE TELLS OF CALLING ON FAMOUS EDITOR.

Humorist Describes His Experience When As a Cub Reporter He Sought an Interview—No Divorce Court Sequel to Jacob's Fourteen-Year Wait for Hatchel.

Los Angeles is different from any city in the world and Dr. Burdette is different from any man that's in it. For the reasons the saying that a prophet is without honor in his own country does not apply to Dr. Burdette as a lecturer in his home city. He lectured last night at Simpson Auditorium in behalf of the city library and the Philanthropic Union to a large audience, and he would have received no heartier applause had he been a humorist from England or Siberia.

Perhaps one of the reasons that his lecture went so well as it did was that he introduced himself. Fully appreciating the honor of introducing so famous a man, he faced his audience with cheerfulness, confessing that any one could give a lecture, but that it takes a clever man to introduce one well.

When Dr. Burdette was a cub reporter he had been sent to interview Horace Greeley. He stood quaking on the threshold of the Greeley sanctum, hoping that the great journalist would refuse to see him. He was disappointed, however, and when ushered into the editorial presence he managed to gather enough of his wits to ask at least one question. Mr. Greeley had been away on a lecture tour and the inspiration which illumined the young reporter's mind at the minute was to inquire if the tour had been a success. Mr. Greeley assured him that it had been, gravely explaining that when more people stay in a building than go out, while the lecturer is talking, the lecture is a success.

One of the peculiarities of Dr. Burdette's lecture was that it had a subject to which he alluded two or three times in the discourse. He made the audience aware that he was perfectly cognizant of the fact that a lecture must have a subject by which to advertise it. His subject was "Jeanette and Jeannot," the same being the heroine and hero of a ballad which his mother sang to him in the old days. Jeanette's superiority was emphasized throughout the mirthful address. By Jeanette Dr. Burdette meant women at large. He found her superior to man in intuition and sentiment. Man sometimes finds it hard to get along with her, Dr. Burdette said, but he could find it much harder to get along without her. Jacob served Laban fourteen years for Rachel and when he got her there was no sequel in the divorce courts. It is the matches made in fifteen minutes at a skating rink or a dance hall which fail to make good in the marital marathon.

The speaker found several objections besides the cost of living, to Solomon's plan of having several hundred wives. Marriage is called a lottery, he said, and while he was willing to admit that it is a game, he thought that a cautious hand would be careful to mark the cards before he began to play. Cain's wife, he said, must have been a peach because she married a man whom God abandoned.

That there is no escape from Jeanette, Dr. Burdette proved by the examples of great geniuses who married in spite of their temperament. Some of these have been unhappily married, but these were united to live with, anyway. Martin Luther married a nun, first because he loved her, then to please his mother, vex the devil and tease the Pope. Woman, Dr. Burdette said, is first at the matinee, longest at the ticket window, last at church and forever at the bargain counter.

DERELICT TARGET.
The United States torpedo boat destroyers Lawrence, Goldsborough, Rowan, Perry, Preble, Paul Jones, Stewart and others returned last night from Santa Barbara channel, where they combed the ocean for two days in an unsuccessful attempt to locate a large target lost by the collier Glacier last Saturday during a gale, while bound from San Francisco for San Diego.

After taking coal and supplies from the collier Prometheus in the outer harbor the destroyers will sail again tomorrow to renew the search. The derelict target, 135 feet long and weighing 275 tons, constitutes a serious menace to coast-wise navigation.

SOCIETY SENSATION THAT STIRS SANTA BARBARA, LONDON, PARIS.

Sweethearts' Lawsuits and Transfer of Valuable Property by William Miller Graham to His Wife Follow Her Triumphant Campaign Abroad.

THE IRREPRESSIBLE PUCK has cast a large-sized pebble into the placid waters of the social colony at classy Montecito, adjoining Santa Barbara, and produced a condition bordering on chaos. And it is stirring society on the other side of the world.

The immediate and concrete results total two lawsuits, and the transfer of over $1,500,000 worth of property.

The lawsuits are between Mrs. Louise M. Timson, a dashing, young widow from Paris, and William Brownell, a wealthy resident of Santa Barbara, and the transfer of property was from William Miller Graham, the multi-millionaire oil magnate to his wife, Mrs. Eleanor Lee Graham, the social leader who was presented at King Edward's court about a year and a half ago, and whose beauty has often made a sensation in Los Angeles.

In the midst of the discords which are emanating from Montecito there is but one note of joy heard, and that comes faintly from across the Atlantic in Lannon town, where a gentleman known as Lord Henry Charles Keith Petty-Fitzmaurice, Marquis of Lansdowne, twenty-sixth Baron of Kerry and Lixnaw, throws his hat in the air and gives three cheers for Montecito and its mix-up.

FROM OVER THE SEA.

The incidents leading up to the chaotic condition date back to the memorable campaign which Mrs. Graham conducted in Paris and London, when she met and conquered French and English society, and succeeded in winning her way to the very Court of St. James, where she was presented to the King.

During this dashing campaign, perhaps the most brilliant ever conducted by an American against the social circles of the Old World, the person of Lord Lansdowne appeared constantly, at first in the background, and finally at the side of Mrs. Graham, to whom he was very attentive. Also a dashing widow by the name of Mrs. Louise Timson, whose beauty was remarkable, was a frequent visitor to the salon which Mrs. Graham conducted along the old French idea in Paris. Mr. Graham, bluff and hearty, had his oil and land schemes to work out, and dropped around only long enough to write checks and say "Go it, My Dear, and do not mind expenses." Then there was William Brownell of Santa Barbara, who is well known in Paris, London and New York. He was a regular patron at the Graham salon, and there met Mrs. Timson, the irresistible.

When Mrs. Graham moved her entourage to London, of course Brownell and Mrs. Timson went along, and the leaders of the country social set of London are still gasping and speaking in awed voices of the splendor of Mrs. Graham's campaign against their bulwarks. Mrs. Graham subdued them in time, and with Lord Lansdowne at her back and cut continued her triumphal march straight up to the zenith.

This was the culmination of the social campaign, and wearing her laurels modestly, and with her bluff husband beaming on all the world, Mrs. Graham returned to rest at Santa Barbara.

MRS. TIMSON ARRIVES.

Brownell remained a short time in London, and then came to Santa Barbara. Shortly afterward, lo and behold, a dainty, dashing young thing stepped off the Southern Pacific train at Santa Barbara, and the social lions of Montecito gawped a welcome to Mrs. Louise Timson, sometime of Paris, and more recently of London and New York. Mrs. Timson was welcomed with open arms and Brownell only smiled in a superior sort of way and secretly not to be compelled to ally himself with the Timson family.

The placid ways of Montecito society became slightly agitated by the addition of Mrs. Timson, the charming young widow. There were teas, luncheons, dinners and suppers galore at the Country Club. Mrs. Timson was voted quite an addition to the set, as things had livened up materially.

BROWNELL'S STAND IN.

Mrs. Timson, with her Parisian training, instituted a salon, which became the rage. She kept open house to a certain extent and everyone dropped in to tea, luncheon or dinner as it might be and always or nearly always, Brownell was present and smiling in a sort of proprietary manner.

One day, so the story runs, Mrs. Timson, confident of a sale, which knight Brownell that she was temporarily short of ready money and hinted that a trifle like $500 would be very handy. Brownell rushed home to his mother, who holds the purse strings, obtained the $500, went swiftly back to Mrs. Timson and dropped it in her lap.

After this there was little doubt that Brownell and Mrs. Timson had an understanding, if they were not actually engaged, as run in the past.

William Miller Graham, who at a rule has deals on, which require the greater part of his time in New York, suddenly found that he could remain in Santa Barbara without injuring his business to any great extent. He was seen quite often at the salon conducted at the Country Club.

KNUCKLES AND CLOUDS.

Several months ago Brownell met Graham at the club and words passed between the two. Brownell evidently accused Graham of something that the latter resented. The result was, according to witnesses of the affair, a round-about contest with bare knuckles which required four waiters and the steward to stop.

Right here the clouds began to gather. Brownell walked on the other side of the street when he passed Mrs. Timson's house. He stormed around and threatened dire things. Suddenly he appeared before the Superior Court of Santa Barbara county and entered suit against Mrs. Timson for $500, which he had loaned her. The doughty little widow rushed into the breach without a moment's hesitation. She secured a lawyer herself and entered suit against Brownell.

Mrs. William Miller Graham, who has recently received from her wealthy husband over one and a half million dollars' worth of property, which is regarded by close friends of the couple as a part of a settlement made preparatory to a tentative separation. The gossip behind it is stirring society on two sides of the world.

returned to her. She asserts that she bought it, and that Brownell had possession of it, and that it was to have been used to furnish a cozy little nest for herself and Brownell. Neither of the cases has ever come to trial. They have been continued on one pretext or another, and it is expected that they never will come up, but will be allowed to die out.

MRS. GRAHAM AT BAT.

At this juncture Mrs. Graham, who had fully recovered from her dreary social campaign in England, arose and shook herself. She listened to the echoes of Montecito, forthwith walked up to Mr. Graham, took him by the ear, in a figurative sense, and led him into the library, where he would have privacy and lots of time to explain himself.

The next day the Recorder of Santa Barbara county put on record three deeds of property from William Miller Graham to Mrs. Eleanor Lee Graham. They were as follows:

Lots No. 26 and 27, and No. 10 in block 4, of the Montecito Land and Water Company's property.

Lots No. 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23, in block 6, of the Montecito Land and Water Company's property.

Also a tract of thirty-three acres fronting on the ocean and running back to the Southern Pacific Company's right of way, a piece of property the most valuable land in Santa Barbara county for residence purposes.

The white marble palace, Belagardo, one of the most sumptuous residences in California, exceeded in magnificence only by the recently completed home of H. E. Huntington at Oak Knoll, Pasadena, was deeded over to Mrs. Graham.

HE IN NEW YORK, SHE HERE.

The recording of the deeds made publicly sit up and take notice. Graham jumped aboard the first train leaving Santa Barbara and went to New York on urgent business matters. He is supposedly still there.

Mrs. Graham came to Los Angeles last week to see her mother, Mrs. Thomas H. Pollock, of Franklin Avenue, Hollywood, where she held a lengthy family conference. At the same time William Brownell came to Hollywood and registered at the Hotel Hollywood. He went to see Mrs. Graham when he was sent for, and joined in the conference.

One Colored Man Whom the War Never Set Free Leaves Los Angeles. Barnum Built Reputation on Him.

The one negro in America whom the war never set free left Los Angeles for New York yesterday.

For the love and the pride he had in his profession as a freak, Zip, the little African on whom P. T. Barnum built his reputation as a circus man and the fortunes which followed it, has remained a slave since the Civil War. When Barnum died he willed Zip to Capt. White, and the courts appointed White his guardian. Zip went on showing as he had done daily since the wizard of showmen first set eyes upon him, and although he has made fortunes for others, he hasn't a dollar in his own name to show for it.

Because the courts have adjudged him to be an incompetent Zip can never have a bank account of his own. Now, in his 70th year, he is valued at more than any slave ever brought in the ante-bellum days. A lease on Zip for the rest of his natural life would be worth $15,000, but the most money that he ever had in his own possession at one time was $40, which he received for two acres that he owned in New Jersey fifty years ago, when he agreed to become a side-show freak for Barnum.

The same strange silence which caused Barnum to see possibilities in Zip, made him the wonder of the few who formed his acquaintance while in Los Angeles the past winter. Zip never spoke a dozen words at one time in his life. He has a fair command of his vocal chords and a rather unusual understanding of words, but speech gives him no pleasure. His eyes and his lips both smile, and that smile expresses Zip's contentment with his lot, rather than any language of sound.

If a noise is really necessary Zip much prefers making inarticulate sounds to speaking. He fell into the habit of silence until all his motions became eloquent.

Although of pure African blood, Zip is brown enough to stand for the wonderful stories of the bally-hoo men about his capture from the tree-tops under the water in a far off sea. Because he will never speak, Zip has been represented as without vocal chords, just as are monkeys, and so Barnum called him the missing link.

The little chap is about four feet, nine inches tall, and has a head shaped like an egg, which he keeps closely shaved except for a wiry top-knot. Zip's guardian in law and owner in fact, feeds and clothes him well, and it has never occurred to Zip to wish for any other kind of life.

GIVES CARRIERS SUNDAYS OFF.
DAY OF REST FOR THE MAIL SERVICE WORKERS.

General Delivery Will Not Be Affected by Order Received in This City From the Postmaster-General. Average of Eight Hours Designed for Clerks.

A restriction of the delivery of mail on Sundays will be put into effect in this city on the 9th inst., according to an announcement made by the postmaster yesterday.

The official received confirmation of press reports as to the action of the Postmaster-General in issuing general orders for the reduction of service only yesterday. He immediately began to make arrangements to comply with them.

The general delivery service will in no way be affected, only the delivery of mail by the carriers at the windows at the various branches will be cut off. Only persons having mail addressed in care of the general delivery will be able to get it, unless they have lock boxes.

"All of the hotels and important business houses are providing themselves with lock boxes at Station C and the main office, which are always accessible," said the postmaster yesterday. "In this way persons who must get their mail on Sunday will be able to do so."

"I am satisfied that the arrangement is going to be completely satisfactory to the public at large. Since the Associated Press dispatches announced the orders of Mr. Hitchcock, ten days ago, there have been no protests or objections to the plan.

"I have had the carriers make as many inquiries as they could and their reports were that the people were in favor of restricting the service. This attitude bears out the actual test I made several weeks ago of the persons who called on Sundays at the carriers' windows."

The postmaster says that Hitchcock's order was a result of a nation-wide movement for better hours for the carriers. One by one the larger offices have reduced Sunday service and permitted the carriers to have the day for a holiday.

The usual collections will be made on Sundays on the hours which are designated on the cards on the boxes. However, the men who do this work and attend to other duties will be given a holiday during the week in order that they may not be compelled to work more than forty-eight hours per week. This privilege was authorized by a recent bill passed by Congress. In connection with this policy, the postmaster issued the following order yesterday:

"Now that the heaviest season of the year is nearing its close, the superintendents of all divisions of the office will arrange, insofar as it is possible, to give a compensatory time off to the clerks for the extra hours of duty in excess of eight hours that was necessarily required during the holiday season. It is my desire that any clerks who shall have an eight-hour-a-day tour, although we all realize that the holiday season brings to the postoffice clerks additional work and responsibilities."

The magnificent manner in which the exceedingly heavy postal business was handled as a result of a nation-wide movement for better hours for the carriers, is a very deplorable that compensatory time be given clerks for their labors at that time in excess of eight hours a day."

DR. ELBERT HUBBARD AND THE MODERN WOMAN.

BY LILLIAN COLLINS.

The momentous question as to the modern woman's position in economic affairs is no longer an issue. It has become a "dead one," in so far as a further necessity for discussion exists. The boundary has been definitely fixed, the circumference of woman's "sphere" firmly established by that eminent authority upon all topics which come before the people for adjustment—Elbert Hubbard. Personally, I had never thought a man who wore long hair could be an authority—but I don't insist upon that point.

In his talk before the dramatic section of Ebell he summed up the whole situation, enclosing the status of woman, together with the varied activities through which her mental life may express itself, in a single terse sentence. Would that we all were equally gifted in the art of condensation.

"Woman's work is anything she can do," affirmed this talented speaker. Isn't that pure Hubbardism? It puts the issue right up to woman. If she can do a thing—why not? If she can't—there's nothing more to be said. The only thing left for woman to do in the circumstance is to demonstrate. Hereafter, any woman who steps out of her proper sphere of action does so with her eyes wide open; and as she performs her work well or ill, stands convicted—if not exactly out of the words of her mouth, at least upon her own evidence.

I once heard a statement to the effect that Elbert Hubbard just missed being a great man, because of a certain tendency to make a jest of those things which, by custom and association, are looked upon as sacred by the mass of people. I have heard his addresses referred to as sacrilegious. I do not know to what extent this criticism is justified, but I am sure that those who heard him speak on "The Modern Woman" must have been impressed by the very evident sincerity of his attitude. Indeed, I fancy that anyone who hears him speak for the first time will leave behind many preconceived ideas of the man.

His face is of a rather melancholy type, in repose, with a tendency to droop in tired lines. One might fancy the responsibilities of life weighed heavily upon him. It is only when he smiles—that smile that begins in the eyes—that we remember many noted humorists masked behind that type of face. He employs the conversational voice, with slow, measured tones, almost exclusively. Gesture plays but a negligible part in the sum of his effect. The very quietness of his manner adds to the force of his thought. One feels more sympathetically the play of his keen mind, through the very passivity of his body. I enjoy that form of platform expression. I always run when a speaker begins to pound the desk or hammer the microphones out of the cushions.

Again, Elbert Hubbard is nothing if not progressive. He is right up to the minute; "down to now," if I may be pardoned the use of this very expressive street parlance. And what is more, he has the courage of his convictions. He doesn't think one thing and say something else. What he thinks, that he says; and there is no mistaking his language. That is how I know he is for woman suffrage. He said so. When he made this statement, in big tones and with stunning effect, everybody applauded—that is, nearly everybody. I seemed funny to hear Elbert applauding so radical a statement.

At any rate, I am glad to have the thing settled; for, of course, it is settled now. We all know that a woman can vote; she has voted. Now can "A" woman's work is anything she can do," then it follows that voting is a woman's work. Nothing complex about that; it's perfectly simple. Anyway, I still believe that Elbert Hubbard is a big man in spite of his hair—not because of it.

CONCERNING LIARS.

[Emporia (Kan.) Gazette.]

The growing custom of establishing Ananias clubs should be discouraged for the reason that it is becoming ridiculous.

If the country had one properly-organized Ananias club, it would be a good institution and would have a large and distinguished membership. But such a club should not be a haphazard affair, and initiation to it should be a solemn and interesting function. There is no distinction, no satisfaction, in belonging to a fraternal society that is open to every comer and in which nomination is equivalent to an election. The way these small, private Ananias clubs are run is a disgrace to all concerned. One man calls another a liar, and the latter immediately becomes a charter member of an Ananias club and is permitted to wear the regalia and participate in the mystic rites.

One result of the prevalence of these unofficial clubs is the degradation of the grand old name of liar. It is being short of its dignity. Time was when to be a successful liar amounted to something. Distinction in that line meant that a man possessed many admirable qualities, including originality and initiative. No man of a sluggish mental equipment ever became a first-class liar. To tell a fish story and make it sound like the truth required pronounced talent.

The word has been so misused and overworked that many citizens become incensed when referred to publicly as liars, and some resort to violence in their resentment. The word is losing its proud significance and soon will be in the same class with "ladies" and "gentlemen."

The country needs a law prohibiting citizens from establishing Ananias clubs without due authority from the Department of Justice or some other bureau. All clubs should be chartered and registered, and no man should be permitted to nominate another for membership without the consent of the nominee.

Enemies of the National Guard.

The San Francisco Labor Council, at its regular meeting last week, condemned the military activity of the United States government. No troops should be sent to the Mexican border to prevent bushwhackers from using American territory as a rendezvous for marauders and revolutionists. The Labor Council's opposition to military activity is not confined to the present maneuvers along the Mexican frontier. Long years before there was any uprising against Diaz in Mexico the Labor Council of San Francisco, as part of the American Federation of Labor, announced its hostility to an American army in any form. Members of labor unions have been censured or expelled because they joined the National Guard. The latter force is regarded by the American Federation of Labor as a menace to the liberty of American citizens. It is strange that no other organization takes the same view of our militia. Most of the law-abiding and honest people of America think that a strong National Guard is a necessary protection, and that it is commendable for any young American to give his assistance to strengthen such an arm of national defense. [The Wasp, San Francisco.]

When the women vote in California it will be "Mrs. Speaker" at Sacramento.

IS THERE A RELEASE?

In a recent issue of The Times appeared a very striking signed article by a special writer endeavoring to show that the tendency of the race today is toward a reversion to savagery.

While we do not subscribe to all of the ideas embodied in this essay, many significant points were touched on which would seem to indicate that Mr. Wright's conclusion was not wholly without foundation. That the times are radically changing is apparent to any person who has taken the time to observe or the trouble to investigate. Are they significant, as the writer of this recent article has intimated? Do they indeed mean that the world's pendulum has started on its backward journey to the ages of barbarism from which, thousands of years ago, it swung? If the spirit of savagery is not again coming over the world, then how are we to explain the numerous symptoms which are evidenced not only in modern dress, but in the actual tendency of human transactions?

The invasion by women of the utilitarian and political life is heralded as a step in civilization. It is pointed to as one of the enlightenments of mankind. But is this not the same condition that existed thousands of years ago, before Calypso and Circe aroused the enslaved women of Greece to their possibilities of power through the medium of charm. In ancient times the status of women was very much akin to the ideal of womanhood as outlined by the leaders of the woman movement today.

Already men have begun to decorate themselves in a fashion which would have shocked the members of their sex a generation or two ago. Men universally are acquiring colors and "effects" in their clothes. Strong indeed is the modern tendency in men toward green vests, colored plush hats, suede shoes and variegated neckwear. Tuxedo suits of nearly any shade are considered proper nowadays. And even with evening clothes men may wear tinted socks without causing comment.

What do these sudden and radical changes mean? Is it, after all, a tendency toward those barbaric conditions when the attire of men was gay and festive?

A point which was insisted on in the article to which we refer is that the enfranchisement of women will actually mean their enslavement. This, however, is a debatable point. It is an open question whether the responsibilities of government and commercial necessities will actually bind women or will make them more independently free. In all ancient countries, however, where this condition of affairs has existed it is true that women have not had the actual power which they possessed through virtue of their deplorable leisure. Whether the modern woman is more fully equipped to take her stand on an equal basis with men and still maintain her power is yet to be proved, although it would seem that when women place themselves on a basis of equal competition with men they will be laboring under a disadvantage. Men, through centuries of experience, have developed a commercial competency which women do not possess and it would almost seem that an attempt at sexual equalization would place women in an inferior, rather than a superior, position. If this latter surmise is true, then the conditions of barbarism will be reproduced in modern times. For in the days of savagery, although the women bore the responsibilities and did the actual work of the nation, they were nevertheless the inferior sex, ever at the mercy of the savage men.

The desire for luxury in the male, we agree with Mr. Wright, is a characteristic of the masculine barbarian. And it is also true that this opulent taste has begun to redevelop. It is known in socialistic circles as the high cost of living. But we are unable to agree with his contention that the decay of civility is any more than a superficial antagonism of men against feminine demands. That it goes deeper we are not inclined to think.

The paragraph in Mr. Wright's article on the radical changes which are taking place in the field of art and literature seems to us the most significant. It may of course be merely one of those reactions which are ever occurring in the development of art. But never, it seems to us, has this reaction been so universal and so unified as at present. And we know that it is the history of all art that it has reflected the tendency of its age. Can it indeed be that this great new era of barbaric art which is just dawning is indicative of the tendency of our own age?

ALL-POOLS' DAY.

The appetite for celebrating certain days—often for uncertain reasons—grows with the indulgence. It is one of those harmless weaknesses with which humanity loves to offset serious hours. In Latin countries the numberless days consecrated to convenient saints form sacerdotal excuses for indulging in blissful hours of idleness. We in America are gradually increasing the number of days devoted to the memory of our departed heroes and converting them into national holidays, to act as a restraint on our national strenuousness.

Some days, however, are celebrated, not as holidays, nor associated with saints or ennobled by patriotism, yet in their observance are persistent, absurd and universal. Chief among these is the first of April, "All Pools' Day."

The small boy, who takes a paper tall to the cost of the dignified merchant, or places the wonted brick under the inoffensive-looking bell, or leaves at the home of the society belle a pretty candy-box filled with sawdust, knows not and cares not why these freak amusements are licensed on the first of April. Probably if you asked the first 100 men you met on Spring street why the first of April is celebrated as All-Pools' Day, not one but would confess that he had never given the matter a thought. Many consider themselves lucky to remember the day at all, especially when the practical joker is abroad in the land. Yet even this apparently most incongruous of celebrations must have had an origin. Of course there is folly enough in the world, but this is sufficiently evidenced every 365 days of the year, without making one poor little day bear the whole load of human foolishness. Two or three more or less plausible explanations are given for the setting aside of April the first for this especial honor.

Some authorities hold it to be a farcical commemoration of the folly of Christ's persecutors in sending the Redeemer, first from Annas to Caiaphas, then from Caiaphas to Pilate, next from Pilate to Herod, and finally from Herod back to Pilate. These advocates point out that, as Good Friday fell somewhere between the 5th and 10th of April, the first was probably the day on which the foolish charges against the Master were set on foot. But this semi-religious explanation does not seem to be in harmony with the present spirit displayed on All-Pools' Day. A more likely origin starts from the year A. D. 1564, when Charles IX of France changed the old celebration of New Year's Day from April 1, the vernal equinox, to January 1, the winter solstice. For a time some confusion arose as to the proper season for celebrating the advent of another year, and many facetious Gauls held mock ceremonies on April 1 in opposition to the King's decree, till finally the day became recognized as one for nonsense and folly.

That the joy swelling in the human heart at the departure of winter and the vernal promise of bright days and copious harvests to come has something to do with this popular choice, is no doubt probable. The feast of Holi, held in India on this day, when the people of the Orient give themselves up to grotesque performances, is older than Christianity and gives color to this contention.

THE TWO PARTIES.

Whatever differences of opinion exist between Republicans and Democrats concerning a choice of public officers or public policies are due to no antagonism of ultimate intent, but only to difference of opinion as to the best means to achieve an end, and that end the welfare of our country. Let it be conceded that the honor of this nation, the defense of its flag, the maintenance of its credit, the control of its army, its navy and its treasury might be entrusted with equal safety to a Republican or a Democrat.

With this concession we stop, for it cannot be admitted that the principles of Democrats are equally noble or their policies equally sagacious with those of their opponents. Republicans glory in their party deeds, and Democrats apologize for theirs. Republicans spread every leaf of their party history to the searchlights, and Democrats pray that every page of theirs may be blotted until it shall become as undecipherable as the hieroglyphs of Egypt. Republicans commemorate their past in song and story, and Democrats invoke for theirs the charity of silence.

Democrats may not be censured for this, for what part—except the part of obstinate and futile opposition—have Democrats had in those great measures of finance, of freedom and of protection to labor which, during the last fifty years, have been adopted into the organic and statutory laws and woven into the thought of the nation?

The foreign-born man wears allegiance to the republic and knows that it is henceforth beyond the power of King or Kaiser to return him to the military servitude to which he was born. The homesteader thanks his country for a free title to his acres. The traveler who fifty years ago lost half a year in journeying from the Missouri to the Pacific now makes the journey in half a week and owes the privilege to the intelligent liberality of the nation. The laborer sleeps at night secure that the wages in his pocket will not be waste-paper in the morning. In the glow of the forge and the din of the factory the intelligent worker rejoices that the American policy of protection assures him well-paid toil.

The black man blesses Lincoln for the freedom bestowed upon the father—the freedom which enables the son to eat what he earns and to come and go at will without fear of overseer or bloodhound. The disabled soldier who never voted that the war for the Union was a failure thanks God and the nation's justice that famine can never make white the lips of those who followed Old Glory into the battle smoke.

Preservation of the Union, a free home for the farmer, sound finance for all, iron roads for commerce, freedom for the slave, protection to the worker, food and shelter for the disabled soldier who followed the flag into the battle smoke. Which of these great Republican measures, was adopted with the aid or even the acquiescence of the Democracy? From her voiceless caverns Echo repeats the query.

SPLENDID PROGRESS.

IMMANUEL CHURCH GROWS.

"The Appeal of the Church to the Modern Man," will be the Sunday morning subject of Dr. Hugh K. Walker, in Immanuel Presbyterian Church.
He will seek to remove some peculiar misconceptions in the realm of religion.
Immanuel Church is at the close of its church year, and the annual meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, when reports will be made and officers elected. The past year has been the most prosperous in the history of the church, the membership
the largest ever reported, and the finances in excellent condition; the benevolences have shown a steady increase and the congregation has never so large. Since the middle of December, over 120 members have been received into the congregation. Dr.
Walker and his host of members, more than 2000 members are to be congratulated.
